EQUALITY ACT 2010

This Act protects people with disabilities from unlawful discrimination. We actively encourage applications from people with disabilities. The Equality Act 2010 defines a disabled person as someone who has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and adverse long-term effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

We will try to provide access, equipment or other practical support to ensure that people with disabilities can compete on equal terms with non-disabled people.

Do we need to make any specific arrangements in order for you to attend the interview?

Yes No

If yes, please give details:

Successful applicants may be required to complete a medical questionnaire and may be required to attend a medical examination prior to being appointed

DECLARATION

1. I declare that, to the best of my knowledge, the information I have given is correct and I have not withheld any information.
2. I understand that if my application is successful, I may be required to complete a medical questionnaire prior to being appointed and I may be required to attend a medical examination.
3. I understand that failure to disclose relevant information, or giving false information, may result in the termination of my employment.
